

III. Answer the following questions in detail.

Write in detail about the various sources of information of modern Indian history.

OR

Explain why rules and laws are necessary for society.

SECTION – B (Geography)

I. Choose the correct answer:

($\frac{1}{2} \times 5 = 2 \frac{1}{2}$)

1. A resource is:
A. anything found in nature B. anything made by humans
C. anything found in nature or made by humans D. anything that has utility and that can be used to satisfy human wants
2. Why is human resource said to be the most important resource?
A. It is the most abundantly found resource on Earth
B. This resource required a lot of training and investments for development
C. All other resource get meaning and value based on the needs and requirements of human beings
D. Almost every human need is met primarily from nature
3. Which of these is not a human-made resource?
A. Schools B. Aircrafts C. Machinery D. Mineral
4. Which are the four golden Rs of conservation?
A. Reproduce, reuse, recreate, refuse B. Reduce, reuse, recycle, refuse
C. Reuse, remark, remodel, reclaim D. Remove, redo, recycle, rethink
5. Potential resources are those that
A. have been safely stored for future use B. have been already developed and in use now
C. could be of use in the future due to breakthrough in technology D. anything found in nature

II. Answer the following question briefly

(2 X 3 = 6)

1. What is resource conservation?
2. What is sustainable development?
3. Why are humans also called a resources?

IV. Answer the following questions in detail.

(4 X 1 = 4)

1. Classify resources. Describe the main characteristic and example of each.

*The End****