SECTION A - READING (20 Marks)

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow: (12)

1. Life is an institution. We have a principal, God, who looks over the entire working of our life. He allots teachers, namely our parents, to guide us through this path. We learn lessons and it is up to us whether we want to pass or fail. Every morning we wake up and give a tick mark to the attendance file of our lives. The only difference in this school of life is you cannot play truant even for a day! Though from time to time one may doze off and not pay heed to the message that is being given to us.
2. From the start my parents taught me and my sister to be good human beings first. Life has been kind, sometimes harsh but mostly fair. We make many mistakes, some of which we admit and others, we conceal. But now that I am 22 years old, I can review every step taken by me.
3. Think positive. Yes, it's that simple. Thoughts are actions. Imagine if there are a billion good thoughts, the universe will throw back a billion good actions.
4. Something within tells me, 'Forget the world and listen to your heart'. If we all just start listening to our inner soul maybe we won't be scratching our heads while taking the final exam. I am not at all close to being perfect but I know I want to get near it..... not by mastering the business world, not by buying. Perfect self according to me.... is kind, compassionate, and empathetic one who sees the good in people and shares the good within themselves.
5. The true test is for us to examine, and to be honest to ourselves before we give a tick mark to our answer sheets. I had a lot of questions ready, my doubt all written, point by point since I could not get the answer from my teachers I made an appointment with God. Doubts about life, love, death, fear, sorrow. I was angry. Why can't He guide us?
6. God was there by my side, every minute, every step. Even though I haven't gotten all the answers I know I will get there.... He will take me there, in my own time, the same way He has gotten me here, where I am now.
7. Some say one should never pity nor envy anyone else..... and I am happy to be me. The first important teaching to learn, count your blessings. We all stand to be a little more aware about what life is really trying to teach us and for some be aware that life is trying to teach us something.

8. Money is like our grades in school... it helps us move to the next steps but after that, who remembers what we scored in mathematics in the third standard? People forget that when we die..... money does not come along with us. It becomes like our grades, we don't remember how much we earned or how much we lost. Families fight, friendships are ruined; parent child bonds are broken. Isn't that a waste..... why would anyone choose paper over love?

9. Here's a plea for whoever is reading this let us all try and be the best pupils in this school called life. Be true love not only others but also yourself. Love God wholeheartedly because that's all He wants, and you know what they say, "Be in his good books and you will go ahead of the class."

(b) Typical (para 8)

(c) philosophy (para 7)

(d) entirely (para9)

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

(8)

1. The nine-letter word “interview” can perspire the most knowledgeable and strong people in the world. That may be one-reason political leaders and corporate giants normally do not agree for an interview. But the popular ones, or those who want to make an impact, willingly give interviews. In modern times, whether or not you like an interview, your prospects depend on its success. So you must know what an interviewer expects from you.
2. First an academic question: What is an interview? It is a discussion in which an interviewer faces a ‘ candidate for a short while and asks questions to probe his knowledge and awareness of the interviewee. It is a very formal means of interaction with one person facing a group of persons, each of whom is a specialist in his or her field. Though it is expected that questions would be asked only on areas known to the interviewee, the interviewers do ask on any subject they like.
3. For a successful interview, you have to understand that knowledge is an important component of success. Knowledge has two aspects: range and depth. The former implies that you should know a lot beyond your own specialization and the latter means an awareness of the various aspects of the topic under discussion. An in-depth knowledge is gained through reading and listening. Be a serious, voracious and avid reader and do not justify your ignorance by saying that the subject does not interest you. Listening may be more important than reading. Be a keen listener, store major facts in your mind and use them at the appropriate time.
4. Next comes appearance, which means your dress for the interview. You must be elegantly attired for the occasion. Going an interview is different than attending an evening party. Wear a simple outfit I, that suits your physique and features. If the weather demands, wear a jacket with a tie. The jacket should be formal, and the tie plain or striped. Women should wear sarees or any other sober dress. Casuals like kurta- pyjamas, jeans, T-shirt or Kolhapur should not feature in your selection of dresses.
5. Conducting yourself in the apt way is equally significant. The way you move your briefcase and talk to the members reflect your behavior. Walking sloppily, talking loudly or inaudibly, getting irritated easily, and showing documents instantly are symptoms of bad behavior. A better way is to enter the room smartly, move forward with dignity, greet the board, sit when asked to, and thank at the end before you leave. Place your briefcase close to the chair, sit cross-legged with hands on your lap and talk to the members in a natural tone.
6. Expression is the most important aspect of the interview. During the time you spend with the board your expression conveys your views and opinions. For good expressions, what you need is clarity of mind and speech. Show your balanced thinking to convey your views clearly. Choose your words carefully. Use right words of normal usage, and abstain from verbosity. Avoid making ambiguous statements.
7. Convey your point of view effectively. In an interview, you may be asked questions where you have to either agree or disagree. Whatever your approach, convince the board that it is unbiased. The board may not agree with your view. Even if you disagree, let not your face show it. Create an impact through your expressions. Give the impression of being a leader. Show that you can cooperate and get it; that you can share views and get people to accept your authority to reach decisions and implement them.
8. Finally, never consider yourself to be a perfect person. Being a human being makes you susceptible to flaws. However, try to confirm to the highest standards and reach as close to perfection as possible.

(a) On the basis of your reading of the above passage make notes on it, using headings and subheadings. Use recognizable abbreviations wherever necessary (minimum 4). (5)

(b) Make a summary of the above passage in 80 words using the notes made and also suggest a suitable title. (3)
