Q1.Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Kiran Bedi was born on 9th June, 1949. Her father Prakash Lal Peshawaria, a landlord in Punjab was determined to educate his four daughters at a time when women were largely limited to doing household tasks. While studying at the Sacred Heart Convent, Kiran joined the National Cadet Corps(NCC) and took up Tennis, a game which her father used to play .After school she went on to study Political Science at the Government College for Women, Amritsar.

Kiran excelled in sports, particularly Tennis. She won the Inter-University women's team title and bagged the National as well as the Asian Title in Tennis. Bedi says the game taught her the value of hard work, the importance of staying fit and built in her the qualities of fair play, team work, concentration, and ability to give in that extra bit under stress.

Kiran Bedi was selected for Indian Police Service in 1972 and was the first woman police officer of Indian Police Service. Spectators at the 1973 Republic Day Parade were amazed to see a lady at the head of the Police Contingent.
