SECTION A: READING

(5 marks)

Q1.Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

All successful people attribute their success to hard work. Take, for example, former Indian President Abdul Kalam. He used to distribute newspaper to earn some income to meet his ends. You will find many such innumerable success stories. It is hard work that paid them. To them, work is worship.

Most people do what's the easiest. The superficial opportunities of life are attacked by horde of people, seeking what's easy.

When you discipline yourself to do what is hard, you get the results that are denied to others. The willingness to do what is difficult is like having key to a special private treasure room.

According to Winston Churchill, hard work is the passport to success. American poet Longfellow points out that all great men were "toiling upwards in the night" while their companions slept.
