|-------------------------------|---------|
| Section A – Reading | 5 marks |
| Section B – Writing & Grammar | 8 marks |
| Section C – Literature | 7 marks |
- ii) All questions are compulsory.
- iii) All questions of a section must be attempted in the correct order.

SECTION A: READING (5 MARKS)1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

1. People will respect your honesty, straight forwardness, intelligence and other virtues only if you behave courteously towards everyone. Courtesy is the polish on personality that attracts everyone at first glance. If an educated person is not well mannered then his education is of no use. It has been said that courtesy makes up for the lack of physical beauty in an individual. Only the person who is able to win over hearts with his good manners can be considered beautiful.

2. A lot of people speak rudely to their employees, subordinate staff and domestic workers, this is wrong. If you speak courteously to the people who work for you, they will feel valued and their productivity will also increase correspondingly. It is expected of any civilized person that he thank those who serve him. When expressing gratitude, it should not be a mere formality but should be sincere, coming straight from the heart.

3. In the same way, saying 'I am sorry' for any mistake on your part will not make you inferior. On the contrary, an apology, if expressed with sincerity, will endear you to others and make you more popular.
