I. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:

(1×6=6)

Buddha walked on fearlessly. Angulimala ran as fast as he could but he cannot catch up with him. He swore and shouted at Buddha, but Buddha smiled kindly at him and continued to walk through the forest. This went on several hours and Angulimala was at last tired and sat down. Buddha stood in front of him. His face was shining with kindness for the robber.

“Who are you man?” asked Angulimala. “Why do you travel through this forest alone? Aren’t you afraid of Angulimala? Why couldn’t I catch you? What magic do you possess? Buddha replied gently, “I’m a friend of yours and I have come to the forest to help you. I have come to save you from further sin. I’m not afraid of you because I love you as I love all other men. My magic is the magic of kindness for all living creatures.”

These noble words touched the cruel heart of Angulimala and he fell at the feet of Buddha. “Oh Lord, save me!” he said sobbing. “I am the greatest sinner on earth”. He cried bitterly and tears flowed from his eyes in two unending streams.

Answer the Questions:

1. Why was Angulimala tired?
