Section-A (Reading)

I. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions given below. (5 Marks)

Once upon a time, a king had a beautiful garden, and into this garden, there was a tree which bore golden apples. These apples were counted every evening, and every morning one was missing. The king became very angry at this and ordered the gardener to keep a watch all night under the tree. The gardener set his eldest son to watch, but about twelve o'clock he fell asleep, and in the morning one of the apples was missing. Then the second son was ordered to watch, and at midnight he too fell asleep, and in the morning another apple was gone. Then the third son offered to keep watch, but the gardener at first would not let him, of fear that some harm would come to him, however, at last he gave permission and the young man laid himself under the tree to watch.
