Section A - Reading

Q1. Read the passage carefully and answer ANY FIVE of the following questions:

(1×5=5)

What makes books so special? Books are compared to treasure boxes since they are full of knowledge and stories. When you open a book, you enter a world of fantasy. You may visit strange locations, meet brave characters, solve mysteries, and learn about exciting creatures. Reading books is not just about entertainment; it also helps us to learn new things.

Books are like teachers that share valuable lessons and experiences. With books, you can explore outer space, dive deep into the ocean, or even go back in history. A book might be your best friend as it will never let you feel lonely since you can always start where you left off. The more you read, the more information you'll gather, and soon find yourself using those words to communicate your ideas and feelings with others.
